Vinodini Copy Books—use in Schools.

416. Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) for how many years were the 'Vinodini Copy Books' in use in the schools of the State;

(b) for how many years were they prescribed first by the Board of Studies;

(c) did the Board of Studies recommend its continuation after the first period was over; if so, for what length of time did they prescribe it;

(d) has it subsequently recommended its continuance for a further period of four years.

(e) what were the special reasons for the recommendations in (c) and (d)?

Mr. K. Narasimha Pai.—(a) They have been in use from 1105 onwards.

(b) For two years (1105—1106 and 1106—1107).

(c). Yes, for one more year.

(d) No.

(e) The recommendation in (c) was made as some members of the Board of Studies felt, that better books might be available next year i.e., 1108—1109.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezuthassan.—It is seen here that these copy books were given an extension of 4 years without a recommendation from the Board of Studies. May I know which was the authority that sanctioned this unrecommended extension of 4 years?
